~ Every County Alliance Is Encouraged To Submit Their Honoree For This Award ~

The CMA Alliance's annual "Dedicated County Alliance Member" award gives each county Alliance the opportunity to select an honoree that has devoted their time, energy, and talents, to the betterment of their local county Alliance.

All honorees will be recognized at the CMAA Annual Session Recognition Luncheon On Saturday, April 28, 2012, in Sacramento.

- Please select an honoree that is a member of your local Alliance and the CMA Alliance.
- The process for selecting this person is up to each county Alliance board.
- In approximately 200 words, explain why your honoree was selected to receive this award.
- List county positions and achievements (include year, if known).
- List CMAA positions and achievements, if any (include year, if known).
- List the honoree's contact information, so we will know how to reach them about this special recognition.
- Submit a recent digital photo of your honoree for publicity purposes.
- List the name/s of the person/s from your county who will give a two-minute introduction of your honoree at the Recognition Luncheon held on Saturday at Annual Session.

E-mail your honoree's application and digital photo, no later than March 1, 2012 to Alice Kolb <amkolb@hotmail.com>
